might sell their produce, and the prices that labor should receive, and they made it a penal offense for any one to refuse to take their paper issues.

My own State of New York tried to do the same thing.

The Continental Congress also did it. They printed the greenbacks of the Revolution. They forced them into circulation. They gave them quality to pay old debt. They could not give them quality to pay for new debt except at such price as the seller would take. And so the issue of the Continental currency mounted to the skies. So gold and silver were driven from the country. So bankruptcy came; and the land was stricken with sorrow from one end to the other. [Applause.]

Shall it be that now—now, when a kind Providence has given us victory over a rebellion; now, when all sections of the land are returning to their allegiance; now, when the spindles of New England and the forges of Ohio may look forward to a profitable market in the future—shall it be now that we are to go back to the sorrow and shame and loss of inflation? ["No, no."]

Shall we, in the midst of blessings, with the price of honesty in our hands—shall we now turn back and try to make money out of soap bubbles, money out of moonshine?

Shall we not rather say: "In the old paths of the fathers who decreed that money shall be of gold and silver, we will walk. As we were loyal in the day of battle, we will be honest in the time of peace. We will deserve prosperity. We will build our industry on the sure foundation of money that shall be money the wide world over." [Applause.]

LIVER IS KING.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

EX-GOVERNOR WOODFORD ON FIAT MONEY.

Marco Polo, the great traveler of the middle ages, tells us the story of Kublai Khan, who issued the Asiatic greenback. He made every man take it in payment of debt and in exchange for whatever property the mighty Khan desired. He went even further than my greenback friends would go, for when anybody refused to take his paper—his Asiatic fiat money—the Khan of Tartary very generously cut the poor man's throat.—[Laughter.] But when Kublai Khan died, then also died his paper money, and there was bankruptcy even in Tartary. [Applause.]

So, too, Louis, the spendthrift, ruler of France, at the instance of John Law, himself a gambler and libertine, fleeing from punishment in England, made the first paper money of France, and based it on the Mississippi scheme. The bubble seemed for a time to be real. Prices mounted to the skies. There was inflation and apparent prosperity, and then the scheme broke and the penalty was paid. For the grandson of Louis died on the headman's block. It was that paper money which more debauched and demoralized France than all the other instrumentalities that led to the reign of terror. [Applause.]

Then there came another instance. When the mob seized the government of France, when the guillotine was the tribune from which orators spoke, and the executioner's death-cart rattled through the blood-stained streets of Paris, again France printed paper money. She clothed it with full legal-tender quality. She thrust men into prison, and sent men to the guillotine who would not take it. But at last the end came even then. Such end forever comes. The bubble broke. Paris and France bankrupt; drunk with inflation and crazed with blood.

Law and order had to come again.—Even more than all the causes contributing to the establishment of the first empire under the First Napoleon were the paper assignat money and the paper mandat money of the French Revolution. Down went their dreams of paper wealth and up rose the empire, solemn and grim, behind them. [Applause.]

There came another instance in our own history—only a hundred and odd years ago. The colony of Massachusetts made paper money, and clothed it with legal-tender quality by force of law.—The men of New England went further. They decreed the price at which men

DANIEL WEBSTER'S WIDOW.

The Queenly Old Lady of Eighty Whom a Reporter Discovered.

From the New York Star.

A dainty blue cap, with fluttering ribbons, worn by a white-haired woman, caught the eye of a reporter yesterday as he was passing the broad portico of the Leroy mansion in New Rochelle, on the Sound. Something in the face beneath the cap arrested attention. Bright hazel eyes contrasted strangely with the snowy ringlets of hair and the pale, almost expressionless, cast of features. Evidences were not wanting of advanced age, yet a graceful form, slightly above the medium height, made the possessor look stately in her old age.

"Who is that queenly old lady?" was asked of a gardener working near by.

"Mrs. Webster, sir; the widow of Daniel Webster."

"The widow of Webster: Seated alone, at the age of seventy-eight, within twenty miles of the great stirring metropolis, a link between the busy present and the dead, historic past.

"Can you oblige me with an introduction, sir?" asked the reporter of Mr. William Leroy, who at that moment appeared on the ground.

"With great pleasure. Mrs. Webster is my only sister," returned the proprietor. "But," he added, "I am afraid she cannot converse much. Her mental faculties are so impaired that she is hardly cognizant of her surroundings, while the past is a total blank."

The reporter was presented to the lady, who received him with courtly grace. Chairs were provided on the elegant little piazza, and a pleasant half hour was spent in conversation.

"I am so glad you have come," was Mrs. Webster's first remark. "I know you admire flowers. Are they not pretty? Miss Woolbert has such a delightful little place, too, the prospect from my window would be better than this if there were not so many flowers."

"Do you read much now, Mrs. Webster?" queried the reporter.

There was no answer to this question, but simply a puzzled look. She turned appealingly to her relative.

The question was reiterated by Mr. Leroy, who at the same time picked up a newspaper from the floor. Then a look of intelligence lighted up the troubled face as she exclaimed: Oh, yes; I read it through nearly every day."

COUNTY TICKET.

For Sheriff,

For Coroner,
FRANK W. HAINES.

W. R. JEWELL, at the court house to-night.

THE Democratic organ calls Mr. Springer a "soft money Democrat."

REMEMBER, Gen. Ben Harrison, of Indiana, is to speak at the tabernacle next Saturday afternoon.

AND still Malden Jones neglects to respond to our invitation to speak in Decatur.

LET the ladies come out and hear Mr. Jewell to-night, at the court house. He is a gentleman of polish, to whom it is a pleasure to listen.

MR. JEWELL, who is to speak at the court house this evening, is a ready and forcible speaker, whose services on the stump are in great demand where he is known. Give him a good audience.

THE Democratic campaign in this county has been one of bluff and brag. But Republicans have become used to that sort of warfare, and it does not affect them. Bluff and brag do not count on the tally sheet.

OUR offer to get a good audience for Malden Jones, if he comes to speak in Decatur, is still open. The Republicans will pay all the expenses of the meeting, and help to get up a crowd. Will Malden Jones accept the offer?

"JONES can and does make an infinitely better speech than Cannon," says the organ of the Bourbon salary-grabber. But the people are not satisfied to take the organ's word; they would rather hear Mr. Jones themselves, and make up their own opinions on the subject.

MR. CANNON had a fine meeting at Mt. Zion yesterday, and his speech was pronounced by all who heard him as a fair, candid, able statement of his political views. No speaker in Illinois has made better or more satisfactory speeches than those delivered by Mr. Cannon this year.

THE indications now are that the entire Republican ticket will be elected. The tendency in that direction is certainly growing every day. Nothing is more certain than that a full Republican vote will give us a Republican victory. Let us have the vote, then.

REPUBLICANS who want to see a Republican elected as the successor of Senator Oglesby should not forget that the only way to secure that desirable result is to cast one and a half votes each for George K. Ingham and John H. Tyler, and also a solid vote for William T. Moffett. A vote for any other legislative candidates is a vote for a Democratic United States Senator.

MR SPRINGER is our personal friend—an acquaintance of long standing—but he went back on us in his Saturday night speech. We had confidently expected that he would speak of the "great fraud," which has been uppermost in his mind and foremost on his tongue for the past two years, and with that expectation seemingly so well-founded we promised that he would say something of the "cipher telegrams," but he didn't. "The great fraud" was not mentioned by him, and we are led to exclaim, "Why, oh, why, Sweet William, do you thus relegate to oblivion the theme upon which your reputation was made?"

KEEP BEFORE THE WHEELS.—A sensible old man who, had managed by frugality to acquire a fortune, once gave this bit of wisdom to a youngster: "Keep before the wheels young man, or they will run over you. Always keep before the wheels." "I remember," he wrote to a young friend beginning life, "when I was earning $1 a day, I used to live on 75 cents. Follow the sound advice of having your wants within your means."

CHOOSE BETWEEN THEM.

Malden Jones, during a good portion of the campaign, occupied a sort of straddle-bug position on the finance question. He was fish to one and fiesh to another, just according to the company he happened to be in. Finally, when his party managers discovered that the people were in no mood to be trifled with on this question, Mr. Jones was induced to formulate a set of principles upon which he proposed to act, in case he was elected to Congress.—This platform was sent to all the Democratic papers of the district, appearing in them almost simultaneously, coupled with the editorial explanation, "We are authorized to state that the following are Senator Jones' views on finance." The papers also add this paragraph to the platform:

It will be seen by the foregoing statement of Senator Jones' views, that they are substantially the same as those set forth by Senator Voorhees in his great speech delivered in the United States Senate, and which have just received such an emphatic indorsement from the people of Indiana. Every true Greenback Democrat and Republican should vote for Senator Jones.

Thus, it will be seen, Mr. Jones at last boldly plunges into the quagmire of soft money, and beseeches "every true Greenback Democrat and Republican" to give him their votes. He distinctively states his adherence to the vagaries of Dan Voorhees, and claims support upon that ground. Now, it happens that there are in the Fourteenth District a good many hundreds of Democrats who are just as much in favor of putting the government finances upon an honest basis as the Republicans are. These Democrats Mr. Jones utterly ignores; he positively asserts his commitment to doctrines which they utterly repudiate. He begs votes upon the ground that he is opposed to the financial theories which these old-fashioned Democrats firmly believe, and because he favors doctrines which they spit upon. Therefore, if they vote for him they merely stultify themselves, by placing an imaginary fealty to party over and above their honest principles.

There is only one recourse left open to these honest-money Democrats, and that is to vote for Mr. Cannon, who is not afraid to place himself upon the solid foundation of national integrity. He is committed to financial doctrines which are held by these same Democrats—committed to them by vote and speech—and he is fair enough to advise people not to vote for him if they favor the wild schemes of Voorhees, to which Mr. Jones points so approvingly. Choose ye, honest-money Democrats, between the candidate who believes in your own doctrines, and the one who begs votes because he favors that system which you cannot but regard as pernicious and dishonest. Which one shall have your votes? Mr. Cannon, who is for a currency based upon true and tried principles, or Mr. Jones, who favors one founded on moonshine?

THE city election in New York this fall posseses an unusual interest to the country, from the fact that it is narrowed down to the single issue of Tammany or anti-Tammany. Thus far only two nominations have been made for mayor, and it is unlikely that any others will be made. The Tammany candidate is Augustus Schell, who has been a Tammany sachem for a time to which the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. His opponent is Edward Cooper, son of Peter Cooper, and a large manufacturer. He is a Democrat, but for years has been conspicuous for his opposition to Tammany rule, and has several times united with Republicans to overthrow it. It is thought this combination will succeed in defeating the Tammany candidate.

IN BETTER CONDITION THAN EVER.—The Indianapolis Journal says that the Republican party in Indiana never occupied a more honorable position than it does to-day. Every man in it is a Republican from principle, and as a party it has no regrets for the past nor fears for the future. It has right on its side, and will prevail in the end. The Democratic party has sacrificed its honor and whatever principles it had by a wide-spread system of bargain and sale with the Nationals. It will be many years recovering from the disastrous effects of this campaign, while the Republican party will enter the next contest stronger than ever.

SWEETNESS WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

CANNON.

A Telling Address.

Hon. J. G. Cannon spoke at Union Hall on Saturday afternoon to a large audience. The event was announced some time before hand, and everybody looked forward to it with no little interest; but after the speaker had come and gone no one was disappointed, but expressed much surprise at and admiration for the logical address, so fraught with plain truths of our financial system. Even the Democrats and some of the Greenbackers admitted that it was an unusually fine address, which has been the topic of conversation in political circles almost ever since. Mr. Cannon told what he would and would not do if elected, which showed conclusively that he was not willing to promise any and everything simply to gain votes.—But he said emphatically that he wanted every man who voted for him to do it understandingly, that he did not want to go back to Congress by the votes of men who did not know how or what they were voting for. This showed good sense in the speaker—and in fact, his speech was so commendable throughout that he won the respect of many men who were heretofore prejudiced against the policy he advocates.—Marcoa News, October 25.

No Failure Known.

On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, in severe colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size, 10 cents; large sizes, 50 cts. and One Dollar. Sold by Dr A. J. Stoner, druggist, Decatur, Ill.

THE honest-money men and the fiatists are having a fair and square fight in Wisconsin. The Republicans have accepted the financial issue, and are standing by the honest-money gospel like men. The Democrats and Greenbackers have pooled their issues in all the Congressional districts, and are running but one candidate in each. Last year their combined vote was 17,000 more than the Republican strength, but owing to the improved organization of the Republicans and the deep dissatisfaction of the old-time, hard-money Democrats, it is not unlikely that the returns will show a Republican gain of one, and possibly two, Congressmen.—The Republican State Central Committee have just issued another ringing honest-money address, which can hardly fail to have a good effect.

The Terrible Southern Scourge About Over.

ABOUT THE LATE BANK ROBBERY.

POLITICAL AND OTHER NEWS.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28.—The weather is clear and pleasant; deaths, 23; cases reported, 21; total deaths, 3,894.

Up to six o'clock 4 deaths and 48 cases were reported to the Board of Health, of which only one was a new case; 47 not heretofore reported. The deaths for the week ending the 27th were 310, of which 177 were from yellow fever and 15 from other fevers.

The Howard Association to-night resolved to relieve the volunteer physicians on the 31st of October, and also to discharge all the vehicles engaged on that date, when they will close entirely. Cases reported to-day, 17; all old.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 28.—Last night was the coldest of the season. A heavy frost fell and ice lined the gutters throughout the city. The Board of Health will to-morrow officially announce the safety to the refugees in returning to the city, but will recommend that all the dwellings be thoroughly ventilated before occupation. From 6 o'clock last night to noon to-day, six orders for interments are reported by the undertakers. This includes deaths both in the city and suburbs.

CAIRO, Oct. 28.—There have been no new cases or no death since last report. The sick are doing well. Heavy frost and ice this morning. The minimum temperature at the signal office is 28; and the lowest 20, near the earth. All quarantine restrictions will be removed November 1st.

VICKSBURG, Oct. 28.—We had ice and black frost last night. The Howard Association are now closing up their affairs.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.—Postmaster General Key took advantage of his trip to the Pacific to feel the popular pulse, and he says that he was greatly astonished to find the Republicans so generally in favor of nominating General Grant in 1880. He believes that the advocates of a strong Government will rally under Grant, and that, if nominated, he certainly will be elected.

Representative Thornburg, of Tennessee, gives encouraging reports about the political campaign in his state, and is confident that the Republicans will gain two Congressmen.

The Republican convention at Charleston, S. C., has nominated for State Senator Hon. James B. Campbell, who, until recently, stood high with the Democratic party in South Carolina. He was elected to the United States Senate by the Democrats of South Carolina before the reconstruction, and last year was elected to the State Senate by the same party. In the Legislature he bitterly opposed a bill, which the Democrats passed, reducing the number of election districts in the state, and announced his purpose to-day to try conclusions with his party as to the good faith and policy of such a law, which was framed to prevent colored people from voting. He announced himself, last week, as an independent candidate for the Senate, in opposition to the regular Democratic nominee, and has now received the endorsement of the Republican convention. It is now believed that the Republicans stand some show of carrying Charleston, as the nomination of Campbell has produced great consernation in the Democratic ranks. The Charleston News and Courier, of Saturday, while attacking him with great bitterness, says that "none deny his ability; his audacious courage is unquestionable, and few men are more sagacious;" and that "he is now in rebellion against the political party which gave him all the political power and influence that he has ever enjoyed."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Official advices received here from London show much feeling in the British Ministry on account of the operations of Russian agents in this country, who are purchasing ships and material of war. Complaint was made pending the trouble between Russia and Turkey, but the position which our Government assumed then, and maintains now, is that, no overt act having been committed against treaty stipulations, there was no occasion for interference. It was stated to-day that the English Government seems to think that is the duty of our Government to discriminate in her interests against Russia. It was remarked by the Secretary to-day, that apparently the English Government was not particularly mindful respecting the part it played against the interests of the loyal people of this country not many years ago, and that, too, in the face of the fact that the rebels were in actual conflict with the Government.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Evening Post prints the following: A gentleman well known in national politics told the following to a reporter of the Evening Post this afternoon: "You remember that dispatch about the mules, don't you—'Send seven more mules'—signed by Abram S. Hewitt? When it was first printed, Mr. Hewitt denied that he had ever sent it. A short time afterward I met Mr. Wm. Orton, and we began talking about the dispatch. 'Would you like to see the original?' asked Mr. Orton. 'Certainly,' I replied. Thereupon Mr. Orton put his hand into his pocket, pulling out a handful of telegrams, and showed me the one on the mules. It was in the handwriting of Col. Pelton. Pelton had written it, signed Mr. Hewitt's name to it, and sent it on its benign errand."

DES MOINES, IOWA, October 28.—Ex-Governor Kellogg, of Louisiana, now in this city, says of the statment of J. E. Anderson promised in an Indianapolis dispatch Friday night: "There is nothing in it. I knew nothing of the Sherman letter until months after it was said to have been written; never saw it; don't believe Sherman ever wrote such a letter; if a Philadelphia man has such a letter, the best evidence of the fact is to produce it. What Anderson says of Sypher, his attorney, may be true. I understand they have had a falling out. He may be divulging some of their private affairs. I have nothing to exonorate Sherman from. I have no interest in any appointments, for they have all been made and confirmed, except the New Orleans Postmaster, against which some of Butler's friends object, but it will amount to nothing. As to the threatened dispatches, they have got none, and none will be published reflecting discreditably on us regarding the Returning Board. There may be some between me and New York exposing the treacherous acts of Tilden's agents, which they are at liberty to publish, and I will furnish the key cipher to them. The statements of Anderson, if made by him at all, as purported, are the maudlin mutterings of a man in his cups. He will probably deny them to-morrow, and say he did not make them. The whole thing is absurd."

Governor Kellogg will leave here to-night for Chicago.

NEW YORK, October 28.—The gigantic robbery of the Manhattan Savings Institution is the sensation in banking circles here. A notice has been posted in the bank saying that no payment will be made without sixty days notice. The surplus of the bank is more than sufficient to cover any probable loss that may be sustained by reason of the robbery. A great number of depositors have given the necessary notice.

The directors were in secret session to-day. It is said to be the rule for janitors of bank buildings in this city to have the combination of the vaults. Every available detective in town has been assigned to the case.

The Evening Post says: So far as can be ascertained, no arrests have been made yet. Superintendent Walling said this morning that he could give no new information about the case and denied that he professed last night to have a clue to the robbers, and if he had he would not have admitted it. The janitor and night watchman are at the bank to-day helping to straighten out matters.

Augustus Schell, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, and brother of the President, says the bank will have a surplus of $500,000 it all the coupon bonds stolen were counted as lost. Great crowds continued all the morning about the bank. The robbers left behind a skeleton key; also three pair of handcuffs. Of forty or fifty boxes stored away about twenty have been opened and their contents rifled. It is possible the amount taken may be more than three million, since the contents of a number of tin boxes containing gold coin and government bonds, with which the side of the vault was lined, have disappeared.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—The Enquirer publishes statistics and approximate estimates of the corn crop for 1878 as follows:

In fifty-one counties in Ohio the number of acres planted is 1,935,000. The yield in bushels is 63,875,000, being an increase over last year of about 1,500,000 bushels.

In forty-eight counties of Indiana the number of acres planted is 2,028,000. The yield in bushels is 48,920,000, being about 2,000,000 decrease.

In ten counties in Kentucky the number of acres planted is 129,000; the yield in bushels is 3,003,000, being 300,000 decrease.

EVERYBODY should hear W. R Jewell, Esq , on the political issues of the day at the court house to-night. Mr. J. is a fine talker, and should be greeted by a crowded house.

ABOUT three hundred people gathered at the tabernacle last evening to listen to an address from R. W. Crampton, of Chicago. The meeting was presided over by Capt J. S. Post.

AT the annual meeting of the general association of the Christian church, which convened in Cincinnati last week, Rev. N. S. Haynes, of this city, was elected recording secretary.

IN case of a runaway those arches on the old square and Water street would come in good play to break a man's neck, kill a horse, or smash a buggy Take 'em down before they take root.

DON'T forget it, that Abel & Locke receive large invoices of new carpet goods every week. They get all new designs as soon as made, and as they buy direct from manufacturers they can sell at lowest rates.

THERE is quite an invoice of tramps in town at present, and it may be well for people to take their clothes off the line before dark. These fellows don't mind it if things are a little damp, they have ample time to dry them in the course of the day.

DECATUR and the people of Macon county generally, are highly favored in having an opportunity to listen to so eminent a statesman as General Ben Harrison, of Indiana. There will be a big crowd to hear him on Saturday next.

THE poor fellow who got so badly "jellified" by being thrown from a train on Sunday, as he claims, is still in a bad fix, his face being swollen beyond recognition. If his misfortune teaches him to keep sober in the future he will not have suffered in vain.

AND now there is another prophecy out about the end of the world. In this case the time for the closing up of all terrestrial things is July, 1879, and a Brahmin Priest is the seer who has unfolded the secret. Accepting this theory the finance questions become insignificant, and all the labor of this campaign will have been for naught.

IT snows and it blows, and it freze; therefore let everybody call at Crecker's and get that gem of a heating stove the "Crown Jewel." With this stove in the house summer will last all the year, and December is as pleasant as May. Nobody should venture into the coming winter without one of these powerful hard-coal heaters.

SOME of the members of the Baptist congregation were taken a little back on Sunday, when Mr. Harris announced to them that he was not a preacher, as they had formed a very favorable opinion of his abilities from what they had seen of him in the convention, and were entertaining the idea of giving him a call to become their pastor. We are of the opinion that they might go further and fare worse.

IN A TIGHT PLACE.

Frank Roach Stopped on his Way Home by Two Garroters.

While politicians are discussing "hard times" in public halls, the noble army of tramps are still abroad in the land begging from house to house, telling the same old story of adversity and want, and making themselves a nuisance generally. It would be strange, indeed, if among so great a number of idle men there were not some who would not scruple to rob a hen-roost, knock a man down and, if need be, kill him for his money.

Frank Roach, a well-known young man, who is clerking in Roach & McReynolds' dry goods store on the new square, while wending his way homeward last night about ten o'clock, was stopped by two dare-devils in front of Fred Pahmeyer's residence on West Wood street, and had it not been for the bravery of Frank he might have been minus a valuable gold watch and a few greenbacks this morning. Frank says he was walking along rapidly, with his hands in his overcoat pockets, when he met two men about his size, walking toward him. Just before they met the two men divided, one taking the outside of the walk the other the inside, Frank going between. When in the act of going by Frank was suddenly clutched under the chin by one of the attacking parties, who attempted to throw him down. Just then the other garroter made a pass at Frank's watch, when he gave him a blow in the face which sent the thief reeling to the ground. Frank, whose throat was still firmly held by robber No. 1, made an effort to free himself, at the same time falling upon the prostrate man, and striking him several stunning blows in the face. In the struggle Frank got his voice, and he filled the air with loud cries of "murder!" "murder!" which with the blows he was sending home every time, so frightened the two scoundrels that they scampered away in the darkness just as the people from the houses close by began to emerge from the doors and come to the rescue of our young friend.

In the scramble Frank's coat and hat were spattered with mud, and the only painful blow he received was one on his right cheek. He was not scratched in any manner, but he was badly frightened, and but for the interference of his mother he would have taken from its resting place the family shot gun and scoured the city over for his assailants.

Luckily, Frank saved his watch and money, and to-day he is the hero of the season. The police have a partial description of the garroters, and are on the watch for them.

A FIRST-CLASS RUNAWAY.

A Wagon Upset and a Buggy Smashed.

This forenoon a two-horse team belonging to Mr. Washington Hendricks became frightened while standing at Priest's mill and came dashing up Main street at thundering speed, and at Water street turned north, as it did so running into Dr. Moore's buggy, which stood near the corner, breaking one hind wheel and axle tree. Rushing on north, near the arch that spans Water street, the fugitive team came in contact with a loaded wagon, drawn by mules, belonging to Mr. Samuel Dillehunt. This wagon body was, by the collision, unshipped from the wheels, and the fore and hind wheels were separated. This, of course, freightened the mules, and they, with the fore wheels, started south at a rapid rate of speed, and coming to Main street turned west, being brought to a halt near the old square. The wagon of Mr. Dillehunt was somewhat broken, but the produce with which it was loaded remained intact. One of Mr. Hendricks' horses was hurt on one hind leg, but how seriously, it was difficult to determine at once. On the whole, it was about as lively a runaway as has occurred in a long time, and as there were a good many teams on the street the wonder is that no more were hurt.

AT MACON.—W. C. Johns, Esq., and Martin Forstmyer will close the campaign at Macon on Monday night. The meeting will be held in Austin's hall.

CLOTHES THIEF CAUGHT.—Last night Officer Brockway arrested James Cruthers in a box car at the depot, on suspicion that he was the fellow that stole overcoats and other articles from the high school building, yesterday. The coats were found in his possession, and also a pair of socks, which he had stolen from somebody's clothes line. The young man belongs here in town, and is somewhat noted as a sneak-thief. He owns up to the stealing.

Reduced in Price.—Tommy Andrews has reduced the price of billiards from 25 to 15 cents per game, or two games for 25 cents.

PERSONAL.

Jacob Hoofstitler left for Springfield yesterday afternoon, accompanied by W. A. H. Harris, who will not stop until he reaches his home, Lawrence, Kansas.

Miss Sallie Wolfe, of Springfield, who has been here several days visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. A. Jones, the milliner, returned home yesterday.

Miss Clara Smith, of Fairmount, New Hampshire, cousin of Miss Nellie L. Smith, is spending the winter in this city, visiting relatives.

Miss Josie Elder, of Lincoln, who has been in the city several days visiting her friends, the Misses Clark, departed for home yesterday afternoon. She is perfectly delighted with the attractions of Decatur, and promises to return and stay longer.

Mrs. MacMurray, of Normal, Illinois, sister of Prof. Brown, Principal of the high school, is a teacher in the 3rd ward school, vice Miss Burnell resigned.

Miss Etta Ehrhart left for California yesterday at 2 P. M., via the L, B. & W. R'y. She joined a party of eight or ten at Monticello, who will accompany her across the continent. Miss E. has a sister living in the southern part of California, whom she will visit for a year, and will probably make the Golden State her permanent home.

Mr. O'Banion, editor of the Maroa News, made the REPUBLICAN office a call this morning, in company with Attorney Arbuckle, formerly of Maroa, but now of Decatur.

Frank Tayler, ex-street car conductor, arrived in the city to-day, after an absence of six months' traveling through Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and other States, as a "live hatter."

Rev. C. M. Westlake and wife, who have been tarrying in the city since the national convention adjourned, the guests of Rev. S MacBurney and lady, left for Pittsburg on the noon train to-day.

Miss Lillie Bristow left for Ecment today, where she will remain a week, visiting Mrs. Vaughn, formerly of this city.

Ely Ulery, Esq , of Mt. Zion, and Mr. W. C. Handlin, of Monticello, are guests at the St. Nicholas.

Geo. P. Blume and Will Scudder went down to Wheatland this afternoon on a gunning expedition.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—There was a full and interesting meeting at Good Templars' Hall last night. Two candidates were initiated, and one re-obligated. Officers for the ensuing term were elected. R W. Crampton, Miss Eunice Hooper, and every member of the order present participated in the "love feast" of words, and the meeting adjourned with a firm determination on the part of the membership to go forth and work more earnestly than ever for the reclamation of fallen humanity.

JUVENILE DISSIPATION.—Last evening, about 7 o'clock, a boy not more than 14 years of age, staggered across Main street on Prairie and went south, passed Priest's hotel in a state of beastly intoxication.—The boy was quite well dressed, and probably may belong to some respectable family in the city. If this were an isolated case it would not be so painful; but when, as a matter of fact, there are many boys of from 12 to 20 years in the habit of getting drunk the case is most alarming.

A FAREWELL SOCIABLE.—On Thursday evening of this week the Bethel congregation will give their late pastor, Rev. W. B. Allen, a farewell reception at the church on North Water street. The evening will be spent in social intercourse, and a right pleasant time will doubtless be enjoyed. On Friday Mr. Allen will depart for Homer, his new field of labor, and will take with him the best wishes of his many friends in this city.

Joy to the Afflicted.—One of our most eminent American Chemists has discovered a process whereby he obtains, in a palatable form, all the active medicinal properties of the East India Cinchona bark, without disturbing the irritant and inert matter. In this preparation the alkaloids are in their native combinations, and the same proportions of the ingredients are maintained as exist in the celebrated bark from the Nilgherry Hills.—This preparation is called CLIFFORD'S FEBRIFUGE, and is fast taking the place of Quinine and the so-called Ague Cures, etc., in the market.

AN ATTEMPT TO ROB MR. JOHN ULLRICH.

Last night about half past nine o'clock, Mr. John Ullrich left his place of business to go to his home on Decatur street, by the way of Wood street, and when about in front of the residence of Mrs. Roach, on West wood street, he saw two fellows approaching him, and when within a few yards of him they separated, one taking the inside of the walk, and the other the outside. Their movements excited Mr. U.'s suspicion and he declined to pass between them and walked close up to the fence, and the fellow who was on the inside of the walk crowded up against him, pressing him against the fence. At this juncture Mr. U. showed his loaded cane, which he held in his hand in a manner which indicated that he intended to use it right then and there, if necessary. Not liking the determined look of Mr. Ullrich, and especially of his trusty cane, they passed on without further molesting him. Mr. U. is of the opinion that had he passed between the two men they would have closed upon him.

As this was only a few minutes before the attack made upon Frank Roach, an account of which is given in another place, these were unquestionably the same chaps who tackled him. There are several desperadoes hanging around town that will bear watching.

BROTHER JAKE AT SPRINGFIELD.—The following paragraph from the Springfield Journal indicates the arrival of Brother Jake in Springfield yesterday, and the opening by him of a series of temperance meetings in that city:

Jacob H. Hoofstitler, familiarly known as "Brother Jake," arrived in the city yesterday, and began last evening a series of meetings at the Reform Club Hall in the interest of temperance. Bro. Jake is one of the most successful temperance workers in the field, and has heretofore twice visited Springfield, and labored here with most encouraging results. The friends of the temperance cause are highly pleased with the manner in which the meetings have opened, and hope for a general revival of interest in the work.

Following this paragraph in the Journal is a statement of the proceedings of the meeting and a synopsis of Brother Jake's speech.

He was adjudged insane, and will be taken to the asylum for that unfortunate class at as early a day as possible

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS
THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT in GOLD
READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Rev. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty, relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

The Daily Republican.

Religion We Want.

We want a religion that softens the step, tunes the voice to melody, fills the eye with sunshine, and checks the impatient exclamation and harsh rebuke. A religion that is polite, deferential to superiors, courteous to inferiors and considerate to friends; a religion that goes into the family, keeps the husband from being cross when dinner is late, and the wife from fretting when the husband tracks the newly washed floor with his muddy boots, and makes him mindful of the scraper and the door mat; keeps the mother patient when the baby is cross and amuses the children as well as instructs them, cares for the servants beside paying them promptly, projects the honeymoon into the harvest moon, and makes the happy home like the Eastern fig tree, bearing in its beauty at once the beauty of the tender blossom and the glory of the ripened fruit. We want a religion that shall interpose between the ruts and the gullies and rocks of the highways of life and the sensitive souls that are traveling over them. In short, a religion that will stimulate people to pay their just debts between man and man, and less preaching about one thing and then practicing another. This is the kind of religion that honest, well-meaning people want, and not so much of the hypocrite.
